Dear Scott,

I just wanted to take a minute and let you know how much I've enjoyed hearing you speak. You are one of the most entertaining and polished speakers I have heard. Your smooth speaking style captivates an audience and encourages them to laugh with your quick wit. I appreciate your personal insights and how it makes your audience reflect. By the end of your talk, the audience feels that they've heard something original and very special, leaving a lasting effect long afterward.

If I can help you, I would recommend you for any speaking engagement without hesitation. Please let me know what I can do.

Sincerely,

Sheldon J. Reber
Director of School and Community Relations
